

Jacques Longerstaey

*Chief Investment Risk Officer – Model Risk Officer
Wealth & Investment
Management
Wells Fargo & Company*

Mr. Longerstaey is the Chief Investment Risk Officer and Model Risk Officer for the Wealth and Investment Management division of Wells Fargo & Co and is based in Charlotte, NC.

Prior to joining Wells Fargo, Mr. Longerstaey was a Senior Vice President at F-Squared Investments, and a member of the firm's Investment Committee. He has over 25 years of experience in the financial markets, with responsibilities in research, product development, and risk management.

Between 2008 and 2012, Mr. Longerstaey was Executive Vice President and Chief Risk Officer of State Street Global Advisors. Between 2003 and 2008, he was Managing Director and Head of the Risk & Portfolio Analysis Group (RPAG) at Putnam Investments.

Mr. Longerstaey had previously been Co-Head of the Risk Management Group at Goldman Sachs Asset Management, and from 1987 to 1998, held various positions at J.P Morgan and Co., including as a founding member of the RiskMetrics team.

Mr. Longerstaey holds a "Licence en Sciences Economiques" from the University of Louvain in Belgium.

He serves as a member of the Board of Trustees and the Executive Committee of GARP (Global Association of Risk Professionals) and is a member of the Chicago Quantitative Alliance (CQA). Between 2010 and 2013, Mr. Longerstaey served as the Honorary Consul of Belgium for New England, based in Boston. He is currently the North Carolina representative for the "Union Francophone des Belges de l'Etranger (UFBE)".

Jacques and his wife Diana moved to Charlotte in 2013. His eldest daughter is a medical student at the Keck School of Medicine of USC (University of Southern California) in Los Angeles. The youngest is a junior at Colby College in Waterville, Maine, majoring in neuroscience.

