

Dr Qing (Clara) Zhou is a UQ Postdoctoral Research Fellow at UQ Business School, University of Queensland. Clara's main research interest is in empirical asset pricing, financial forecasting and empirical corporate finance. Clara has published in well-regarded international and Australian domestic journals: Journal of Corporate Finance, Accounting & Finance and Australian Journal of Management. She has also received an AFAANZ research grant. Before joining UQ Business School for her PhD, she worked for China Development Bank in mainland China.